

Newton Theatre Company presents
Junie B. Jones Smells Something Fishy

By Hannah Napier Rosenberg, Development Director, Newton Theatre Company

With summer winding down, it might seem like the fun family outdoor events that made summer so enjoyable are nowhere to be found. But we have some good news for you!

Join Newton Theatre Company at the Hyde Playground Bandshell, 90 Lincoln Street in Newton Highlands, for a one-time performance of Junie B. Jones Smells Something Fishy on Sunday, September 16 at 4 p.m. (Rain date: Sunday, September 23rd at 4 pm). This performance is free and does not require tickets.

Back by popular demand, Junie B. and her crew are brought to life to tell the hilarious adventures, and sometimes misadventures, of Junie as she tries to find the perfect pet to bring to school for Pet Day in Kindergarten.

The show is guaranteed to have the whole family in stitches. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make summer last just a little bit longer- come see the show and stay for a special meet and greet with the cast after!

For more information, go to newtontheatrecompany.com.

photo by Kim Neal Photography